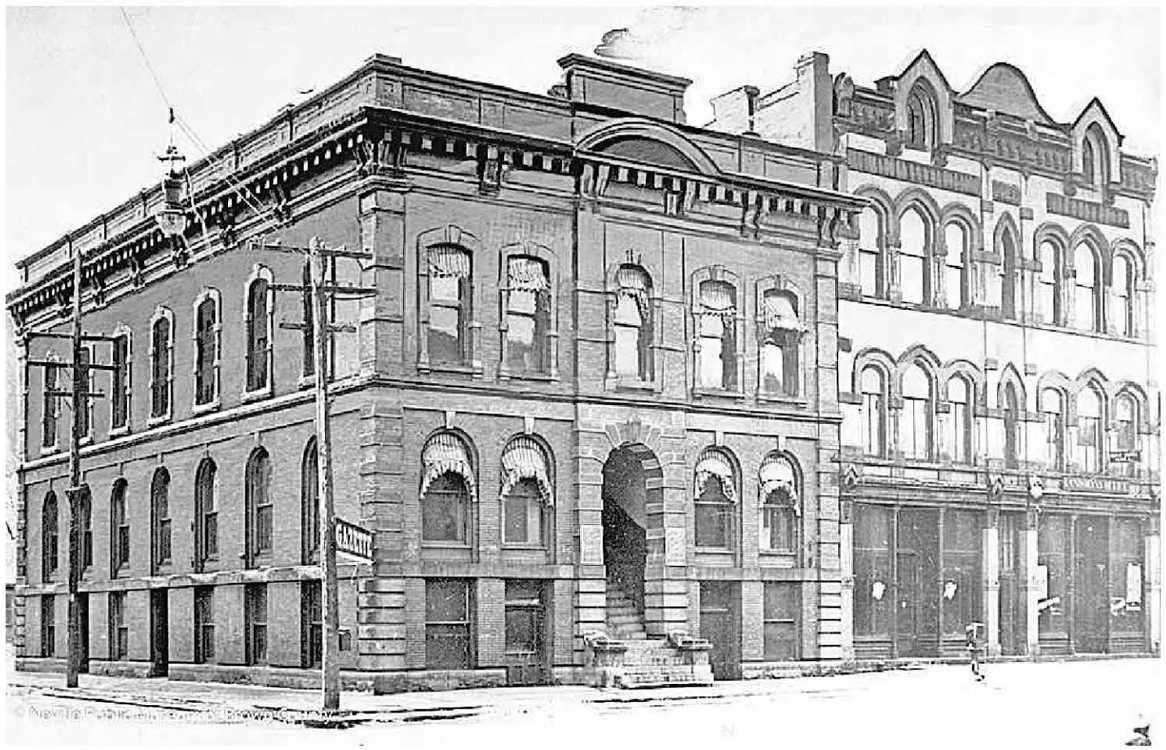
THROWBACK THURSDAY

E. J. Shaylor Block

The E.J. Shaylor Block, at the southeast corner of Adams and Pine streets, has undergone significant external changes since it was photographed around 1920. The main entrance, originally on North Adams Street, was moved to Pine Street. The first floor windows were also changed to display windows. The building is now home to the Berners Schober architectural firm and the Liberty Café.

» Order a reproduction of this and other photos from the Neville Public Museum of Brown County at http://photos.nevillepublicmuseum.org.



COURTESY OF NEVILLE PUBLIC MUSEUM OF BROWN COUNTY.

The E.J. Shaylor Block at Adams and Pine streets, circa 1920.

USA TODAY NETWORK-WISCONSIN

The E.J. Shaylor Block at Adams and Pine streets is home to the Berners Schober architectural firm and Liberty Cafe.